J1:9 CAMP
FOR FRIENDS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

“I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.”

-Revelation 22:13

The Program

J1:9 Camp for friends with special needs at Carol Joy Holling and Sullivan Hills Camps provide opportunities to make new friends, enjoy an outdoor setting, and grow in faith. Campers will enjoy a fun experience including activities such as a hay rack ride, boating, fishing, cookout meals, creative arts projects, and sharing in prayer and worship.

During these three-day, two-night sessions, camp participants will stay in the Sjogren Retreat Center at Carol Joy Holling Camp near Ashland, Neb. or the Buckley Retreat Center at Sullivan Hills Camp near Lodgepole, Neb. Both locations are equipped with the comforts of home including dormitory style bedrooms, restrooms, large inviting gathering spaces, and access to God's creation.

The Participants

- Youth program events are designed for participants between 13 and 21 years old.
- Adult program events are designed for participants over 21 years old.

Those needing assistance with activities of daily living (e.g. eating, showering, or using the restroom) must bring an assistant/aide. Please list specific needs of the camper on the questionnaire. Please note these facilities are not 100% handicap accessible. If you have questions about accessibility or activities, please contact Bailey Neitzel at BNeitzel@NLOM.org or 402-944-2544 to discuss your individual needs.

The Cost

This program costs $230 at Carol Joy Holling Camp and is free at Sullivan Hills Camp. A $50 deposit is due at the time of registration for both camps (for Sullivan Hills campers, the deposit will be returned after the camper attends). Campers will also receive a t-shirt at the end of their camp session. Spaces are limited and registration is on a first-come, first-served basis.
